

Rotkreuz is located about 45km south of Zürich and about 18km north-west of Luzern.

By car

From Zürich take the motorway and follow the signs to Luzern till exit Rotkreuz. The driving time from Zürich Airport is between 40 to 60 minutes depending on traffic (50 km).

From Luzern take the motorway to Zug/Zürich till exit Rotkreuz.

Leave the motorway at exit Rotkreuz. Within the exit take the left line to Rotkreuz (roundabout 2nd exit) and keep on the right line which leads you through a right turn to the industrial zone of Rotkreuz. Follow the street - which takes a 90 degree turn left - and after about 400 meter turn left after a pedestrian crossing (blue building on right-hand side). At the end of the street turn right and at left hand you see the building showed on picture above. For parking see below.

By train from Zürich Airport

There are about 3 connections per hour from Zürich Airport to Rotkreuz. None is direct. You need either to change trains at Zürich main station or Zug. Travel time about 1 hour / cost about CHF 35 one-way. For schedule and ticket please check: <http://www.sbb.ch/en/index.htm>

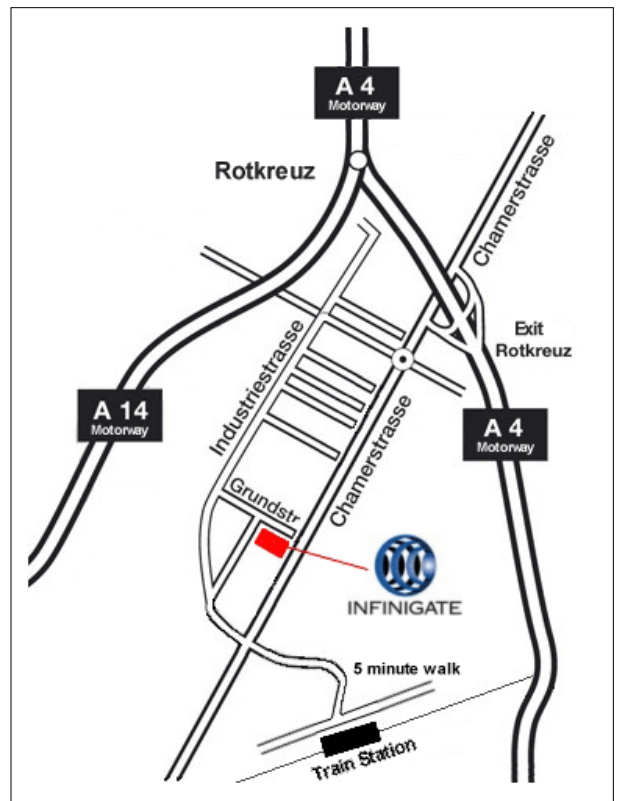

By taxi from Zürich Airport

If you plan to take a taxi from the Airport let us know, as we have a special price agreement (about CHF 130.-) with a specific taxi company.

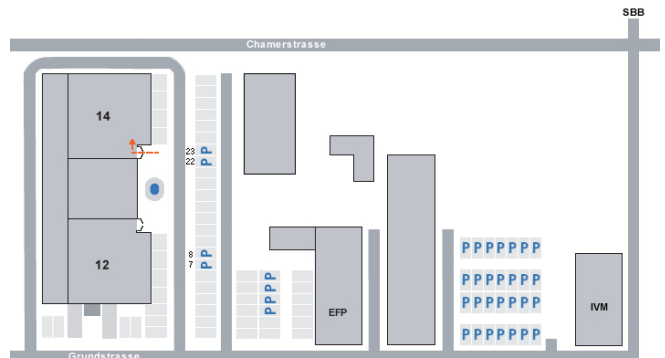

Combination train and taxi from Zürich Airport

Alternatively you can take a direct train from Zürich Airport to the city of Zug (about 40 minutes) and from there you can continue the trip with a taxi (about 20 minutes depending on traffic). Taxi cost about CHF 50.-

about 1 hour from Zürich Airport about 20 minutes from Luzern

Parking

SBB